Authorize building of SEMC heliport

A proposed helicopter landing area on top of Kaender's Pavilion at St. Elizabeth Medical Center has received the approval of the state Department of Transportation's (DOT) Division of Aeronautics, it was announced Saturday.

In a legal notice signed by Robert L. Donahue, director of the Division of Aeronautics, it was announced that the Aug. 6 request of SEMC for a restricted landing area heliport has been approved, but no operations are authorized until completion of the construction and issuance of a Certificate of Approval.

THE ORDER approving the request to begin construction is to become effective 30 days after the order is served on the proper SEMC officials.

The approval is good for up to one year and, if construction is not completed within that year, good cause will have to be shown for SEMC to receive an extension of time.

The order notes that SEMC must follow all local zoning regulations, building code requirements and local ordinances in the construction.

A HELIPORT is expected to speed the time it takes to transport critically ill patients from SEMC to other hospitals which specialize in such areas as severe burns, premature babies and head injuries.

Recent helicopter transfers have required the clearing of a parking lot or the use of local parks and school grounds for the helicopter landings.

40-cent rate hike on ballot

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record

A 40-cent increase in Granite City schools' education fund tax rate limit, from $2.55 to $2.95, was approved Saturday morning for inclusion on the Nov. 6 ballot. Its yield would be $1 million annually.

After initially discussing boosts of 30 or 60 cents, producing $750,000 or $1.5 million, the Board of Education at a special meeting decided to specify 40 cents for voters' consideration.

THE ELECTION ALSO will propose a $6,000,000 working cash fund bond issue.

Board members believe the bonds would represent about a 45-cent rate, on each $100 of assessed valuation for a limited number of years, such as ten years.

All of the added money would be applied to reduce District Nine's debt pegged at $7.9 million to $8.2 million and to meet current operating costs, which otherwise may deplete the treasury before the 1984-85 school year has been completed.

VOTING FOR the education rate ceiling increase were Wesley Nelson, acting president, Thomas Mufsky, secretary, Kelly Hogan, treasurer, and board members Ruth Lahr and Alan Cridler.

Unable to be present were David Partney, president, and Monroe Worthen, board member.

Meeting with the board were the superintendent, Frank Kraus, and Finance Director, Norman Oswa.

Personnel Administrator Terry Salem and Attorneys William Schooley Jr. and III.

SUPT. KRAUS said at the start of the meeting that Partney has changed his mind and now favors inclusion of the education fund on the ballot.

Earlier last week, Pres. Partney voiced concern that inclusion of two school questions—the education rate and the bond issue—on Nov. 6 might upset voters.

Ask new school talks; 6% raise sought

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record

A federal mediator will be consulted today about scheduling another bargaining session, possibly for tomorrow, in the week-old Granite City teacher strike. Picketing continues.

Faculty workshops were postponed Friday and again today and are now set for tomorrow. Attendance by students will follow by 24 hours the actual conducting of workshops.

WEEKEND ACTIONS included—Distribution of a circular by Local 743, American Federation of Teachers.

—Issuance of a board-authorized response by Supt. of Schools Frank Kraus.

—A REQUEST, REPORTED last night by Board President David Partney, that he be allowed to address the union members on school finances and the board's offer. He alleged teachers have not been given copies of a written proposal that was submitted by board negotiators at 5 p.m. Aug. 24, three days before the strike began.

Shirley Stoll, Local 743 president, said today she has not received any to the local.

The circular from the Granite City Federation of Teachers included AFT and Illinois Federation of Teachers symbols. It asked, "Why aren't teachers in school?"

"Local 743's basic proposal" was outlined as—

—WAGE FREEZE

—One-year contract

—Seniority language in the contract to provide specific guidelines on layoffs, recall and tie-breakers —Specific disciplinary procedures for handling disruptive students."

BRIEFLY REVIEWING the circular during a special meeting Saturday morning, the Board of Education indicated it did not feel the four items fully explained the local's stand.

Discussing only the first point, a wage freeze for the 1984-85 year, Supt. Kraus told the Press-Record.

"What they are proposing is to change the 14-year salary schedule into 10 steeper steps, while also adding an 11th step."

"THIS NEW STEP would go into effect at the start of the next school year, 1985-86, and would represent a pay increase of about six percent, costing the school district in excess of $700,000."

With larger annual increments, younger teachers hired when some of the present teachers retire would quickly receive higher salaries than are now projected, reducing the extent of potential savings in future years as new teachers join the faculty.

Also, the six percent raise would be the base on which 1985-86 pay would be negotiated; it would not actually be the maximum new pay level. The 11th year would be built into the schedule effective after 1984-85 and a further raise could be sought under the local's proposal.

PIES, STOLL, says the terms are still open to negotiation, but that teachers have been seeking some form of assurance of higher pay after the 1984-85 year.

She last week emphasized her belief that the district, aside from the pay issue, has hesitated in improving contract wording that she believes "would not cost the school district a dime."

In her comments today, she noted there was no pay increase in 1983-84 and that the local is willing to accept a freeze for '84-85 but does not want a third successive freeze the following year.

"WE ARE WILLING to have a freeze for this year and a one-year contract, but we need assurance for 1985-86."

"We also think it is important to obtain contract language spelling (Continued on Page 3)

Percy brings good news on Smith hiring

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record

Bringing his campaign for a fourth U.S. Senate term to Granite City late Friday afternoon, Charles H. "Chuck" Percy said A.O. Smith Corp. has increased its employment plans to 500 workers instead of the 300 to 400 initially announced.

Noting that a $2½ million urban development federal grant helped finance the current $18 million renovation of the local automotive products plant, Percy said he has taken close interest in restoration of the facility, which shut down several years ago.

Park-N-Eat, a 45-year tradition, to close permanently Saturday

By SUSANNE INDELICATO of the Press-Record

For as long as most Granite Cityans can remember, the little man on the pizza burgers sign facing Madison Avenue at Niedringhaus Avenue has asked, "Do I smell pizza burgers?" Carhops have dashed to cars bringing the Park-N-Eat special, a hamburger featuring cheese and bacon, to hungry customers. And Park-N-Eat has been one place where the meat for the burgers was guaranteed to be "ground on the premises."

But, after Saturday, the pizza burgers, the carhops and the Park-N-Eat special will be just memories to be fondly savored over assembly-line, fast-food burgers or shared with those too young to remember the Granite City landmark.

CECIL MINER'S Park-N-Eat drive-in closes Saturday. The building will be razed, and soon, a Huck's quick shop and gas station will stand in its place.

Miner, who has owned the business 30 years, is retiring at age 71 and plans to spend his retirement not with burgers, but with fish, in other words, "teaching my grandchildren how to fish."

The drive-in building was first constructed at its present location by Bob Craven in 1959. In 1947, Ray Davis bought the drive-in, later turning the ownership over to Miner in 1954. Prior to purchasing the restaurant, Miner owned the Sunshine Cafe in Wood River for 11 years. Before that, he worked for Kroger Food stores. It was his employment with Kroger which got him into the restaurant business.

"I WORKED for Kroger's, and we had a customer, Frank Graham, who was the head of Medal Gold Dairy. The dairy would loan you the money to go into the restaurant business, and then charge you on your milk bill every day," he says.

What has made the Park-N-Eat more than your ordinary drive-in, however, has been its specialties, including the Park-N-Eat special, originated in 1948 or 1949, according to Miner. The ground-on-the-premises beef and Miner's special care in preparing the cole slaw also brought fame and customers to the drive-in.

But the most popular item, the pizza burger with pizza spices ground right in the burger and topped with pizza sauce, has been the favorite that has led some patrons to order as many as 25 at a time to freeze and eat later.

IT WAS IN December of 1967 that Miner introduced the spicy burger, which is not his own invention but a franchise product from Pizza Burger, Corporation of Muskego, Wis. It is the original and only pizza burger in town, and anything else around, Miner says, is an imitation.

Miner says he loves the special burger and will miss it, since it can't be made at home. But what he'll miss even more is the customers.

LAST CHANCE. The Park-N-Eat drive-in at Madison and Niedringhaus avenues will close Saturday after 45 years of business. Owner Cecil Miner has sold the property to Huck's, a quick shop and gas station business.

Treatment budget revised

Granite City Alderman Paul Fisk, chairman of the sewage treatment plant committee, told city council members last week that they will receive a revised copy of the treatment plant's budget in the mail this week.

The $2.3 million budget was tabled last week after questions surrounding pay raises for the employees came up. Aldermen thought Superintendent Terrence McMillan was receiving a raise of 25 percent, but it was later learned that his salary was divided under two line items, thus reflecting an increase of only 12 percent.

McMillan said the change in the budget will remove the pay raises from the salary line item to a contingency listing. The raises will then be discussed with the negotiating committee in much the same manner as the police and fire raises. In that case, the raises are listed as a $350,000 bonus package.

The appropriation represents a balanced budget since the plant anticipates more than $2.3 million in revenue for the year.

Wells, 30, of 1970 Fourth St., East Madison, was accused June 27 of delivering cannabis in the unincorporated area of Madison County. He pleaded guilty to an amended charge.

CHARGE MAN AFTER BOY SUFFERS INJURY

Patrick K. Squires, 36, of 2419 W. 26th St., was arrested at 23rd Street and Washington Avenue last week and booked for alleged battery.

The charge related to an incident occurring a short time earlier when a babysitter, looking after Shaun Turner, 7, at 705 Kirkpatrick Homes, alleged Squires started arguing while sitting with her and the boy outdoors and pushed Shaun's lawn chair backward, causing the child to fall on the ground and strike his head on a brick.

Shaun suffered a half-inch laceration and was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center by his mother, Sheila Turner, and the sister, reports said.

Man continuing quest for school shop equipment

Convinced that large electrical shop equipment has been inappropriately mislaid or discarded, John Petish, a resident of the Granite City school district, is continuing to make periodic verbal requests for information.

Appearing before the Board of Education in late August, he noted that minutes show the board was described as authorizing transfer of the vocational electric shop within Granite City High School. The former site is now the automotive shop, and a new electrical shop has been created.

Petish commented, "Equipment such as motors, instrument panels and compensators may be disposed of by the board as long as it is consistent with any state restrictions on vocational equipment. The federal government also contributes funds to vocational programs."

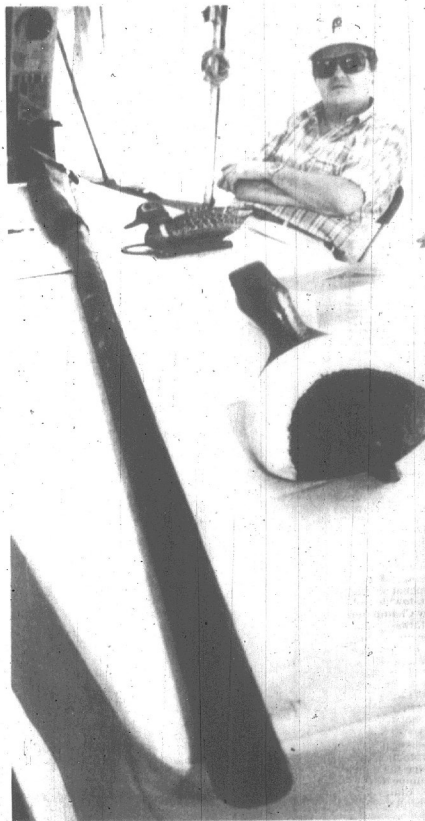

"I would like a copy of the board minutes authorizing elimination of the electric shop and also a copy of the state approval."

Board members said they gave general authorization for the consolidation of all schools into 12 a year ago, administrators had the task of implementing the consolidation.

Secretary Thomas Miosky referred Petish to Supt. Frank Kraus for whatever records are sought. Miosky advised Petish that he might as well proceed with "the next level of action" that Petish proposes in his persistent effort to pinpoint the location of various equipment.

STEAL GUN FROM CAR

Diane Muxleart of Fairmont City reported recently that a .38-caliber special snubnose revolver worth $126 was stolen from the locked trunk of her auto. The vehicle was parked at the rear of Debbie's Lounge, 1224 Madison Avenue, Madison, when the theft occurred.

PART OF LOCAL HISTORY. Emory Beck, an employee of Fox Industries, displays an 8-foot-long punt gun at the Tri-City Regional Port District's 25th anniversary open house last week. The flintlock gun, weighing more than 80 pounds, was first used on Horseshoe Lake during the early 1900s to kill large numbers of waterfowl with a single shot. The birds were a food source for the farm workers employed by the gun's maker, Herman Hausler, a property owner in the lake area.

SMASH STORE WINDOW

Two large rocks were found lying inside a broken front plate glass window at Kosyak's Market, 2600 Nameoki Road, last week. Officers entered the store through the window and searched the building, but no one was found and nothing appeared to be missing, reports said.

"Our staff is delighted to offer this service to the community," said Bernard Royce, broker at Century 21 Royce Realty, Inc. "Adding homeowners insurance makes us even more than ever a one-stop real estate center."

Century 21 Royce Realtors, Inc., is one of 27 offices located in Southern Illinois to participate in the sale of homeowners insurance. To date, approximately 46 real estate brokers and sales associates in the Southern Illinois area have been licensed as insurance representatives.

WOMAN ALLEGES BEING STRUCK WITH FISTS

David Paul Krause, 25, of 2553 Nameoki Drive, was arrested there last week and was charged with battery after allegedly arguing with Susan Tague of Granite City. He pulled her into the kitchen, knocked her to the floor and struck her head, face and back with his fists, she told officers.

Miss Tague got into a car to leave and Krause followed her, striking her again in the head, she alleged to officers, who noted the woman's face was swollen. Krause was released after posting a $55 cash bond.

out an objective method of deciding who is laid off, who is recalled and how ties on layoffs and recalls are to be broken," she related.

Percy said he was disappointed that the circular from Local 743 did not reflect his perception of what has taken place during the bargaining. He is one of the members of a negotiating team led by Personnel Administrator Terry Salem.

"WE DO NOT HAVE the money that the teachers' proposal would require. I would like to discuss our situation at a meeting of all the teachers," Percy said.

"It also is important that the public understand that the $6.6 million bond issue and the education fund rate on the Nov. 6 ballot are not connected with salary raises.

"These proposals are badly needed to help us retire debt and continue operating."

"NOT SINCE 1969 has there been an increase in Granite City school taxes, even though there has been much inflation since then."

"If we were to approve the request we could not afford to complete the following school year. In fact, unless we are able to find new borrowing sources, we may not be able to continue operating past this March."

A statement last week by Chuck Burdett of the Illinois Federation of Teachers said, "Many IFT locals continue their efforts to conclude negotiations and avoid strikes and work stoppage in a number of districts across the state."

"HOWEVER, bargaining has stalled at Thornton Community College, Granite City and LaSalle-Peru, where strikes are in effect. All three locals are 100 percent effective in their efforts."

Faculty strikes also are in progress at Rockford, Bremen, Urbana, Sycamore, North Chicago and North Boone.

The Chicago Teachers Union agreed Monday to work under its expired contract until Nov. 1.

Percy

of 28, recalled serving with a member of the Smith family, Theodore Smith, years ago in Business Council activities.

buoyed by polls showing him ahead of his Nov. 6 ballot opponent, Cong. Paul Simon, Percy was upbeat on many issues and trends. A statewide poll announced that day by Champaign and Peoria television stations showed the incumbent leading 53 to 40 percent.

Percy voiced shock over what he described as Simon proposals, including "unilateral disarmament, and an income tax Form 1040 checkoff, in which families could block any use of their money for national defense."

PERCY WILL TALK with William Ruckelshaus, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency administrator, to voice his doubt that scheduled auto tailpipe tests in parts of Madison and St. Clair counties would help the overall purity of air flowing through Missouri and Illinois.

Along the same line of thought, Sen. Percy voiced pleasure at a governmental decision Thursday against trying to tax people of Midwestern states for the bulk of costs to reduce "acid rain" in New England.

Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Percy said he electing him would not only foster stability in U.S. foreign relations but also help maintain Republican control of the Senate in conformity with programs of the Reagan administration.

WALKING A TIGHTROPE on the tariffs vs. free trade issue, the 18-year legislator opposed importing foreign products in volumes and ways that violate the trade laws.

But he stressed his general support of open trade and said it is in the long-range interest of Illinoisans. This state is number one among the 50 states in agricultural exports and number three in manufacturing exports, it was noted.

Citing points that he believes constitute an "Illinois advantage" from continued Senate membership for Percy, the senator noted that Pres. Reagan has signed a law extending the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial from the Gateway Arch in Missouri to a proposed park on the Illinois shore. A site of up to 100 acres is to be developed at a cost of up to $1 million.

THIRD IN SENIORITY in the Senate, Percy was at ease throughout the interview at the Press-Record office. He frequently volunteered facts he considers pertinent and seemed exceedingly well versed when responding to a wide range of questions.

Although he and the president do not always agree, Percy said he has backed Mr. Reagan on 80 percent of the issues coming before the Senate, in contrast to "Ted Kennedy's 36 percent and Paul Simon's 15 percent."

Sen. Percy voiced praise for the agreement under which National Steel plants, including Granite City Steel, are now owned jointly by National Intergraph of the U.S. and Nippon Kokan of Japan.

I'VE WORKED with the Japanese extensively and found that such business contacts can be of mutual benefit," Percy related.

Returning to the attack on his election opponent, the senator said it is vital to Americans that the decades-old B-52 bomber be replaced by the B-1. But, he added, Cong. Simon has opposed it.

Percy acknowledged that he helped arrange a visit by the Rev. Jesse Jackson to the Midwest, where a captured U.S. pilot was freed. The senator said Reg. Jackson followed to the letter all suggestions by the U.S. Department of State and Percy's committee, and that Reg. Jackson was praised by Pres. Reagan for his efforts.

Park-N-Eat

Tucker remembers. IT MAY have been the advent of fast-food restaurants that was the beginning of the end for Park-N-Eat, he said. "The other places moved in," Miner notes, "the customers forsaken me." He thinks that it is not the competition they offered, but the location of such restaurants near shopping centers and busily traveled streets that drew his customers away.

Exactly what he does have loyal clients. "We don't do any comparison of the business McDonald's does, but we have people who have eaten with us for 30 years who are concerned about our closing," he notes.

In the 30 years that Miner has operated the drive-in, he has had his successes, but he has also had his flops. "As long as I've been in the restaurant business, you'll always have those," he says, noting the failure of one such item called the "pup in a cup." That unpopular item featured a hotdog in a mustard sauce served in a cup. "The royalties were too high. We had to charge too much. That's the nice thing about the pizza burger. The royalties aren't high."

SO SATURDAY marks the end of an era for Granite Cityans, but it also is the end of a lifestyle for Miner.

But, he says, if he had it to do over again, he wouldn't be in the restaurant business. "There's too many hours and not enough money," he says.

Tax rate

rate limit change says that the increase is needed "because of the decreasing revenues of the district from sources other than property taxes."

IT WAS NECESSARY to act Saturday instead of tonight, when the board's regular meeting will begin at 7:30, the school attorney ruled.

Such a ballot question must be acted on by Madison County Clerk Evelyn Bowles 61 days in advance, but the request must be submitted 65 days before the election, it was pointed out.

The 1983 District Nine rate of $3.4867 on which 1984 real estate tax collections will be based consists of $2.55 for education, 37.5 cents for building fund, 22.72 cents for employee retirement, 12.64 cents for tort immunity, 12 cents for transportation, five cents for the life safety fund and five cents for the working cash fund.

An 85-cent increase would result in a new school rate of $4.3487. The 45-cent estimate for bonds assumes interest of 11 percent.

BOARD MEMBERS stressed that the bonds and rate change would not provide funds for pay raises. They said some financial leeway is needed because of the cost of supplies and equipment inevitably will rise from inflation.

Also, with 32 certificated personnel scheduled to retire, retirement benefits for them will need to be placed in the 1983-86 budget, Owca reported.

Exactly how to utilize $660,000 derived from the sale of school buildings has not yet been decided. Some board members commented they are hopeful that the General Assembly will increase statewide school aid next year.

IT WAS LEGALLY possible to propose an added 6.75 cents for the education fund rate, rather than 40 cents, but board members said they were attempting only to offset the district's operating debt at this time.

Sky only limit on state lotto

Yes, a printer won $40 million in the Illinois State Lottery lotto game. No, it wasn't us. Maybe we could change our name to Michael Wittkowski.

Our joy for the lucky, 28-year-old Chicagoan—winner of $2 million a year for the next 30 years—is tempered only by sorrow over the fact that, except for picking a few wrong numbers, it could have been us collecting that princely—no, kindly—sum.

But there is joy, of a sort, for all. A new fiscal analysis by State Comptroller Roland W. Burris shows that—although Illinois governmental revenue from horse racing is slowing up—it has been more than made up for by the feet-footed, fast-finishing state lotto.

In the July 1978-June 1979 year, state income related to horse racing, mainly from the tax on pari-mutuel betting, totaled $77.8 million, compared to $27.8 million from the lotto.

Five years later, in 1983-84, racing revenue slipped to $65 million but the lotto netted $37 million for the state out of $91.1 million in sales.

The lotto, in fact, produced more for the general revenue fund in the past fiscal year alone than did horse racing for the last 10 years combined. The state gets nearly 40 percent of the lotto take, while only about six percent of the race bets go to state coffers.

Aside from the lottery's growing success in competing for citizens' dollars, other factors have been noted. Horse race attendance is down, and there has been a steady decline in betting volume since the peak year of 1979-80, when the state derived $81.1 million. And-tracks' tax rate was lowered by a 1979 law enacted because the tracks said they were in dire financial straits.

Despite the decrease in statewide horse racing taxes and attendance, Fairmount Park at Collinsville showed gains in 1982-83, the last year for which statistics on individual tracks are available. Fairmount attendance rose from 6.75 million to 6.93 million, money wagered climbed from $115 million to $123 million, and state revenue increased from $1.092 million to $1.103 million.

Burris is not yet sure of the impact of inter-track betting, authorized a year ago. A state racing board report is due this month and a special racing task force will submit its findings to the governor by November.

But the comptroller and everyone else in Illinois and the nation can see the tremendous lotto interest that has developed.

This past weekend, $40 million. Some weekend soon, who knows? Apparently, only the sky is the limit.

10.75% mortgages to be offered

It's not as good as winning the Illinois State Lottery this week, but after this month, Quad-Cityans can enter a different kind of lottery, this one to determine who will qualify to receive home mortgages at 10.75 percent.

J.W. Kiley, director of the Illinois Housing Development Authority (IHDA), announced in a letter to State Rep. Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) late last week that IHDA has sold $82 million in tax-exempt bonds to be used for mortgages under the Affordable Mortgage Program '84. The bonds were sold Aug. 17.

THE MONEY will finance approximately 1,600 new 30-year, fixed rate mortgages for first-time homebuyers. The interest rate of 10.75 percent will be at least three percentage points below conventional mortgage rates.

Lending institutions are being sought in each county of the state to service the mortgages and, by the fourth week of September, the program should begin. At that time, families will have 30 days to qualify and register for the drawing which will determine the order in which the mortgage loans will be processed. Mortgages will be issued in that order until all the money has been distributed.

Kiley told Wolf in the letter, "We will contact you as soon as a list of participating lenders is established. In the letter, we also will provide an IHDA Affordable Mortgage Hotline number so that your constituents can easily reach us with questions."

Two viaducts to be improved

Consultants for the proposed reconstruction of the McCambridge Avenue and Broadway viaducts have been selected by the Illinois Department of Transportation. A six-member IDOT committee selected the consultants, all of which were prequalified to ensure their abilities.

Work on the Route 203 overpass at McCambridge Avenue southeast of Madison will include surveys, a bridge condition report and preparing contract plans for reconstructing the bridge over the Norfolk & Western Railroad. Blank, Wesslink, Cook and Associates, Inc., of Decatur was selected as the consultant.

THE BROADWAY viaduct is to be studied by WVP Corp. of Decatur. Work includes a bridge condition report and contract plans for reconstruction of the structure. The viaduct goes over the Illinois Terminal Railroad Yard between McKimley Avenue and State Street in Venice.

Other area grade separation work in Madison County for which consultants have been selected includes rehabilitation of the dual bridges carrying Interstates 55-70 over Route 157 and over the Collinsville Bottling Plant. Hansing Engineers, Inc., of Springfield, is to do the work.

Juneau Associates, Inc., Granite City, was picked as consultant to prepare a project report and contract plans for the reconstruction of an Old Route 159 structure over Cahokia Creek west of the current Route 159 north of Edwardsville and an Old Edwardsville Road structure over Indian Creek east of Roxana.

CONTRACT PLANS for the modifications of the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad subway at Route 143 in East Alton are to be prepared by GSCA Consultants of Urbana.

The projects were among 37 statewide for which consultants were selected by the IDOT committee. Bids will be sought for the work after detailed plans and specifications are completed.

Tick bites lead to serious illness

By FRED H. UHLIG
Illinois Department of Public Health

Each summer, we issue warnings to Illinois residents to take precautions against tick bites, because of the potential for Rocky Mountain spotted fever. As you may know, the disease is transmitted to humans by ticks which have previously fed on infected wild animals, such as rabbits, field mice, etc.

This summer, we are experiencing another kind of tick-borne disease called tularemia or rabbit fever. Cases of tularemia are rare in Illinois—only three cases occurred during the six-year period 1981-1983. But, four cases have already been reported in Illinois this year.

And, what's even more surprising is that the four cases that occurred this year were caused by tick or deer bites. (Deerflies are large flies, up to half-an-inch long, which bite hard and often leave a drop of blood at the site of the bite.) In Illinois, most cases of tularemia are caused by direct contact with an infected rabbit.

Tularemia is a bacterial infection. The first sign of this infection is usually a pimple-like bump, or papule, which appears at the site where the organism entered the skin. This papule, which generally appears three to five days following the bite of an infected tick or deerfly, usually develops into an open sore.

Other symptoms, which occur two to four days after the papule appears, are: abrupt onset of fever, chills, malaise and fatigue, and a swelling of the lymph nodes that are closest to the open sore.

Anyone who develops these symptoms should seek medical care immediately. And, when you do, be sure to tell the physician about any recent tick or deerfly bites. That information will help your doctor make a faster diagnosis.

Tularemia can be treated successfully with certain antibiotics. But, it can be fatal if it is not treated.

If you have contact with ticks or wild rabbits, take precautions to help prevent tularemia.

When you're in a tick-infested area, wear protective clothing: long sleeves, trousers, sturdy shoes or boots and a head covering. In addition, use liberal amounts of an insect repellent that is effective in preventing tick bites.

If you're skinning or eviscerating wild rabbits, avoid direct hand contact with the animals.

In rare instances, tularemia can be transmitted through eating infected wild rabbit meat that is not well done. So, be sure to cook your rabbit meat until it is very well done.

Electric demand sets new record

Demand for electricity last Wednesday reached 3,327 megawatts (MW), a new peak for Illinois Power Co. The previous peak demand was 3,297 MW, reached Aug. 19, 1983.

Wednesday's peak demand came between 4 and 5 p.m. This week all IP generating units were available for service.

This new demand of 3,327 MW created a reserve margin of generating capacity of only 12.5 percent, which is below the recommended level, a spokesman said.

Homeowners who feel they may be eligible for such tax exemptions may go to Cruse's office in the basement of city hall to obtain forms to claim the exemptions.

Home owners may be eligible for exemptions

Granite City Township Assessor Von Dee Cruse has announced that homeowners who have made certain improvements to their property may be eligible for tax exemptions which may offset their increased property assessments. Cruse says tax exemptions are available for homeowners who have added central air conditioning, carports or garages, rooms or in-ground swimming pools to their dwellings.

Homeowners who feel they may be eligible for such tax exemptions may go to Cruse's office in the basement of city hall to obtain forms to claim the exemptions.

Property Taxes

Granite City residents were asked if they think the current use of property taxes to support schools should be changed to a more equitable form of taxation. Their reactions follow:

John Krekovich, Granite City

"Definitely so. It's been due for a long time. I want to emphasize that people 65 or older should be totally excused from paying any school taxes whatsoever. They have paid their dues. It's a sad day when people and realtors cannot sell properties in areas for what they are assessed at."

Jo Ann Mathenia, Granite City

"There might be a better way to assess taxes to the school, but I don't think that people who have children in school should be the only ones responsible for paying these taxes."

Sandra Basden of Granite City

"No, I don't think the method should be changed. Everyone is benefiting in some way from the school district, whether it be through their children or their grandchildren. I don't think it would be fair to put the entire burden of raising taxes for the schools on families who are trying to raise their children."

Jack Simpson of Granite City

"I think that taxing should be fair and equitable. In this case, I think senior citizens should be excluded from paying the school tax."

$20 fee for senior citizen's library card

To the Editor:

Some time ago I wrote you a letter about how the people on the outskirts of Granite City, mainly Pontoon Beach, have had to pay $10 a year per adult to Granite City for a library card.

Librarian Robert Stack at the main library wrote column after column on what a bargain people were getting for a $10 public library card. Recently, I had a $10 bill and went into the branch library to get a card for my own use.

To my amazement, they have upped the price of a library card per year per adult to $20.

I know from his lengthy letter in answer to mine that much is offered at the library, and even more for younger people.

But $20 out of one senior citizen's Social Security check is more than I can spend on a library card. Businesses that are run to show a profit do so even when a discount is given to a senior citizen; they do not go broke.

About all a senior citizen wants a library card for is a good book or a reference book for Bible study. Most senior citizens cannot concerned with borrowing the latest jazz records or obtaining movies for small children.

Also, why is there an additional $10 tax on our utility bill because we are outside the city limits of Granite City?

And if we are visiting in Granite City and swallow a chicken bone and an ambulance is summoned to transport us to the hospital, why is there an additional charge put on the ambulance fee because our home address is Pontoon Beach?

Less inflation benefits everyone immensely

To the Editor:

"Where's the beef?" was Walter Mondale's show-stopping challenge to Gary Hart's "new ideas" campaign. This flash of rhetorical brilliance was a turning point in the campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination and received a great deal of attention from the media and the public.

I submit, however, that the real question of the 1984 election ought to be "How much is the beef?"

Although the economic recovery has focused our attention on such heartening statistics as the 6.8 million new jobs created in the past 18 months and the rip-roaring growth of the economy, our victory over inflation has received scant attention.

The deaf ear turned to one of the Reagan administration's major success stories is puzzling, for the runaway inflation of the Carter-Mondale years was a central issue in the 1980 election.

Just four years ago, America was suffering from back-to-back years of double-digit inflation.

During the last 12 months of the Carter administration, inflation was raging at 12.4 percent.

Today, the inflation rate is 4.2 percent.

What this means for the price of beef is that a pound of ground beef that costs $1.33 today would have cost $2.10 if the rate of inflation at the end of the Carter-Mondale administration had continued.

Had inflation continued unabated, the weekly family food bill of $98 to $100 would total $131; a gallon of gasoline would cost $1.88, not the present $1.21; and a three-bedroom home priced at $68,700 today would cost $91,100.

There was more than a dime's worth of difference between the candidates in 1980.

Just how did the Reagan administration vanquish inflation while at the same time creating millions of new jobs and a surging recovery? To begin with, inflation was attacked at its root—the printing presses of the federal government.

We stopped hearing about how inflation was somehow "built into" our economy, or how it was all the fault of those nasty Arabs. Or sunspots. Or gremlins.

Inflation, caused solely by government increasing the money supply faster than the increase in the supply of goods and services, was attacked by slowing the growth of the money supply and by cutting taxes and eliminating excessive regulation in order to increase the supply of goods and services.

A growing economy and a sound dollar brought inflation down quickly.

This may seem like simple common sense to you. It is. But common sense is a rare commodity in Washington, D.C. Ronald Reagan is the first president since John F. Kennedy to produce both economic growth and job creation while lowering inflation.

As you assess the field of candidates for national office this summer and fall, listen carefully to what they have to say about the nation's economic policies.

If your congressman or senator voted against the tax cut of 1981, or prefers tax increases to spending restraint, I suggest the following sobering exercise:

Take a dollar out of your pocket and remind yourself that had the economic policies of the Carter-Mondale years continued until today, that dollar would be worth only 79-cents.

SAYS GCHS PRESS BOX NEEDS REPAIRS AND PAINT

To the Editor:

Recently, an article was published in the Press-Record concerning our new football coach at our high school, and his desire to instill loyalty and dedication through the ranks of his football team and others closely connected. Parents of students at the high school should sit up and take note. We need more instructors like Ron Yates in our system.

Another article published recently alluded to the many phases of work and good deeds the Booster Club members are doing for the athletes at our school. These Boosters are to be commended for their efforts and their support, but little recognition do they receive. We need more Boosters.

The same Booster Club, although perhaps members of years gone by, promoted and supervised the building of our fine press box at the football field. Material was donated to the club and Booster Club members labored until the project was finished.

The press box has been deteriorating for some time now, and there's a real need for wood to be replaced and paint applied to preserve the exterior. The appearance of the upper structure is becoming shabby. Surely someone cares enough to see that this problem is solved.

Mace sprays 31 in congregation, woman member posts $602 bail

With 31 members of a church saying they were sprayed with the chemical Mace, Violet L. Briggs, 41, Normandy, Mo., pleaded innocent to eight allegations of battery in a Granite City court appearance at 3:35 p.m. Thursday.

She was released from custody upon posting $602 cash bail at 7:50 p.m. Thursday.

Many of those asking to file charges had red, tear-stained faces and were experiencing breathing difficulty, officers said.

Complainants related that the incident occurred as the congregation was starting to depart from services at the Pentecostal Church, 2601 Cayuga St.

Those signing formal charges included Mrs. Betty Linhart, 36, of 629 Ashland Ave., Mitchell, wife of the pastor, Rosemarie Clark, 26, of 3239 W. 20th St., and James Whitehead, 21, of 2313 W. 24th St.

Police were told Mrs. Linhart approached Violet Williams in the foyer of the church as parishioners were leaving at 8:35 p.m. Wednesday and asked that she not return to the church in the future.

Mrs. Linhart said that, to attract the woman's attention in the crowded, noisy area, she touched her arm. Violet Williams contended that her arm was grabbed and held.

Saying she had brought the combination tear gas and mace gas in her purse to protect herself, the latter related that she began spraying at persons who appeared to be at variance on her testimony. Some persons said they received streams of the chemical in their faces, and others encountered it indirectly.

Part of the spraying occurred accidentally as Rosemarie Clark tried to wrest the canister from her hand and clamped a hand around her head, Violet Williams said.

Rosemarie Clark woman eventually obtained the canister and Violet Williams began to leave. Before the latter could depart, she was struck in the face by Whitehead's fist and was knocked to the ground, authorities were told.

Whitehead said his children, John, two years old, and Amanda, one year old, seemed to be choking from the spray. He said he reacted physically against the woman out of concern for their survival and out of fear that she might be escaping.

She did leave the church area, going to a neighboring home, and was questioned by police at the residence and police station.

There were conflicting stories about how close a broom was to the altercation at various times, and to what degree it was wielded menacingly toward the Normandy resident after the initial disagreement.

Whitehead signed complaints for himself and his children. Other complainants besides those named were Iva Howard, 66, of 2205 Nevada Ave., Juanita Martin, 64, of 2201 Dewey Ave. and Mary Linhart, 16, of 629 Ashland.

Twenty-three others who asked to sign complaints consisted of 14 Granite Cityans, four Pontoon Beach residents, three St. Louisans, a Mitchell resident and a Belleville resident.

Q: Is it true that I can buy U.S. Savings Bonds on a tax free basis if I specifically buy them for my child's college education?

A: You are correct. However, there is a proper procedure which must be followed in order to secure a tax-free return which, incidentally, applied to federal state and local taxes. You must buy the bonds in your child's name, with you, the parent as beneficiary. Do not name yourself as co-owner, however. At the end of the first year of ownership, file a federal tax return in your child's name, and inform the Internal Revenue Service that your child will report annually on the interest received. So long as the total investment income reported by your child does not exceed $1,000 annually, the accrued interest on the bonds held is tax free. Again, be sure to name yourself as beneficiary, not as co-owner. At the current rate, and if bonds are bought early enough in the child's life, and held long enough, the tax-free earnings could well go a long way toward a college education.

School nurse pay equity is ordered

Illinois Federation of Teachers President Robert Healey last week praised the decision of Judge Arthur Dunne of the Cook County Circuit Court, who ruled that certified nurses who work in schools must, in accordance with state law, be paid on the same salary schedule as teachers in the district.

Local nurses receive equal pay. Healey said that the ruling is a victory for equity for nurses. We are proud and happy for whatever impact our amicus brief and oral arguments may have had on the final outcome.

The ruling came at the conclusion of a suit brought by a coalition of 15 school districts that sued the State Board of Education in an effort to prevent enforcement of HB 83-180, the Nurses Salary Act.

Passed during the 1983 legislative session, the law mandates that school boards pay certified nurses on the same salary schedule as teachers.

The boards based their suit on grounds that the legislature failed to appropriate any funds to implement the law. The State Mandates Act provides that when the state cannot pay for a law, it must appropriate funds to pay the costs. The legislation is otherwise unenforceable.

Judge Dunne ruled in favor of the State Board and the nurses on grounds that a subsequent action by the legislature exempted the Nurses Salary Act from provisions of the State Mandates Act.

Referring to the coalition of school boards, which included the Chicago Board of Education and the school board association, Healey said: "It is a sad commentary on the attitude of those who administer our schools, that they seem always inclined to take any action that will deprive or deny teachers and other school professionals an equitable wage even through the service they perform is vital to the welfare of students."

Battery alleged against GC man

Foster said he reached to pick up the items and Christoff entered his home in an attempt to get the shovel. Christoff left when Foster's mother threatened to call the police.

Fairmont City dump first site cleaned under new state program

Governor James R. Thompson announced the completion Friday of the state's first hazardous waste cleanup under the $20 million "Clean Illinois" program announced just two months ago.

"This action today is the first step in a new, aggressive effort to prevent Illinois from becoming a hazardous waste dump, as well as other legislative action in recent years, serves notice to generators of pollution that they must face up to their obligation to act in a responsible manner when disposing of the pollution they create. If they will not face up to that obligation, we will make sure that they do through new legal tools," Thompson said.

Officials consider annexing property

Madison city officials have decided to contact various taxing bodies about the city's intent to annex 300 to 500 acres south of the Stephen Maers Industrial Park. If annexed, Madison officials say the property may be designed as an enterprise zone, making developers eligible for certain tax benefits for development of that property.

An earlier Press-Record story erroneously reported that the city would purchase the property, but Madison Alderman Thomas Gordon said the city only plans to annex it.

In June, the governor, in cooperation with legislative leaders, proposed the most ambitious hazardous waste cleanup program in Illinois history. The "Clean Illinois" program provides $20 million over the next three years to target and clean up abandoned hazardous waste sites across the state.

The 12-day cleanup at the first site began Aug. 20 on the outskirts of Fairmont City at a hazardous waste site discovered in 1981. At the time, the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency investigated the site after two boys returned home from playing in the area with holes in their gloves and yellow spots on their hands from abandoned chemicals at the site.

The EPA investigation uncovered more than 128 illegally discarded barrels and drums, some of which apparently had been there since the mid-1970s.

Taylor approached Miss Spurgeon and started to argue with her. Mrs. Taylor then slapped her and Taylor tried to break up the two women. At this point, the Hunt brothers allegedly intervened and a fight broke out. Glasses were broken and tables were overturned during the brawl.

A patron of the tavern, Philip Clement, was struck on the face with a bottle during the commotion, but he refused medical treatment. Mrs. Taylor and her brothers were arrested after several witnesses alleged that the three initiated the fight.

Jail, fines for drug deliveries

For delivery of cannabis, Circuit Judge J. O'Neill in August fined Gregory Williams, 22, of 2417 Dewey Ave., $1,200 plus $950 restitution, $120 special costs and $95 court costs, placed him on three-year probation and ordered a 60-day Madison County Jail term.

On a separate cannabis delivery count, Williams was given two-year probation and fined $600 plus $91 restitution, $60 special costs and $95 court costs.

A third allegation, delivery of a controlled substance, led to two-year probation, a $100 fine, $10 special costs, $5 restitution, $95 court costs and 50 hours of public service work.

The charges were filed June 21 against Williams by the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois.

In discussing a series of arrests in late June, agents said Williams spent nine months investigating alleged drug dealing by various persons in the vicinity of West 23rd Street, Illinois Avenue and Olive Avenue.

In January 1984, Gregory Williams was charged with possessing a plastic bag containing 25 hand-rolled cannabis cigarettes.

Jail term for use of weapon

Frank Ford, 27, St. Louis, has pleaded guilty to unlawful use of a weapon in Granite City. The charge was filed Feb. 2.

Circuit Judge P.J. O'Neill later ordered Ford to serve one year of probation, spend 90 days in jail and pay $95 in court costs.

THE LAW AND YOU

BY RICK REED
Attorney At Law

Recently this article discussed the possible liability of a store owner for injuries sustained by a customer who slips and falls inside the owner's place of business. It was concluded that the customer can recover from the store owner if he can show that the owner was negligent in allowing the substance which caused the fall to remain on the floor. Another type of case deals with the situation where the patron trips and falls outside the defendant's place of business, usually on a sidewalk or parking lot.

This type of case often involves an incident where the customer falls upon ice or snow on the business owner's sidewalk or parking lot.

Many cases have been held that a property owner is not an insurer of all injuries sustained by a customer on his property. Generally speaking, the store owner is not responsible for injuries caused by natural accumulations of ice and snow on his property. On the other hand, if the owner is negligent in removing the substances or in allowing ice or snow to accumulate, he will be held responsible for subsequent injuries.

One case involved a parking lot which had an upper level and a lower level. The owner of the business attempted to shovel snow from the upper lot, but he piled it in such a way that it melted onto the lower lot. This caused an unnatural accumulation of ice on the lower lot, and one patron slipped and fell. Here the Court held that the owner was liable for the injuries sustained since it was his negligence which caused the ice to accumulate.

In another case, however, the Illinois Courts found that a dentist who owned a building was not responsible when one of his patients slipped and fell on a path which he had shoveled. In this case, he shoveled snow from his office door to the parking lot but apparently left the underlying ice on the sidewalk. The Court found that since he did not create an unnatural accumulation of ice on the sidewalk but rather merely failed to scrape away the existing ice, he would not be held responsible for the injuries sustained by his patient.

In conclusion, the Illinois Courts have generally held that a property owner will not be liable for injuries sustained by a customer where the accumulation of ice or snow is a "natural" one and not one caused or aggravated by the property owner. If the owner's conduct, however, created the artificial accumulation of ice and snow, he will be held responsible for injuries sustained by the patron.

New financing plan helps Bridick open a Popeye's Fried Chicken

"Business is great," said Don Bridick, president of Alton's newest business, Popeye's Famous Fried Chicken located at Washington Avenue and Bellfleur in Alton. "Since opening last Wednesday, our sales have far surpassed our expectations. Things have shaped up very well for us. Our construction was completed and the restaurant opened on schedule. This, in a large part, is due to the enthusiasm and support we received from our local bank and the Southwestern Illinois Areawide Business Development Finance Corporation." Bridick, who also is the chief of police in Madison, noted.

The project was financed by the First National Bank in Madison and the Southwestern Illinois Areawide Business Development Finance Corporation. Using the SBA 503 program, Popeye's received 50 percent of its financing from the bank, 40 percent of its financing from the Small Business Administration through the SIABDFC, and 10 percent of the project costs from personal and business funds.

"The purpose of the SBA 503 program," said Debbie Groetka, assistant operations manager of the SIABDFC, "is twofold. First, the program assists small businesses in obtaining long-term, reasonably priced financing. Secondly, the program is designed to create jobs, stimulate investment and expand the local tax base."

According to Mrs. Groetka, "The program is well suited to projects such as Popeye's of Alton where new permanent jobs have been created, a formerly vacant building has been renovated and made both useful and attractive, and the business and its employees will contribute to the local economy."

Bridick noted, "We could not have opened this restaurant without the assistance of the SIABDFC and the SBA 503 program. The amount of financing we needed simply was not available from conventional sources at prices we could afford." Popeye's Famous Fried Chicken is the 15th small business financed by the Southwestern Illinois Areawide Business Development Finance Corporation in this region. To date more than $10 million has been leveraged for investment in local businesses through the SIABDFC.

The SBA 503 program can be used to finance the purchase of real estate, rehabilitate existing buildings, construct new buildings and for the purchase of long-life equipment. It is not to be used for working capital or speculative development financing.

Persons interested in obtaining further information about the SBA 503 program and services provided by the Southwestern Illinois Areawide Business Development Finance Corporation may contact SIABDFC operations manager, Rod Wilhelm, or Debbie Groetka at 344-4080.

Forfeitures Begin Despite strike, Warrior teams are practicing

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Granite City Community School District Nine's teachers may be on strike, but Granite City High's athletes are not letting that work stoppage keep them from practicing.

Friday morning, GCHS athletes were on the practice fields in full force as the strike ended its first week.

At the field behind Central Christian Church at 2020 Johnson Road, the Warrior football team was doing calisthenics and going through some light workouts. Ironically, the church is adjacent to Frohardt Elementary School, where teachers were picketing.

AND, it wasn't just the football team practicing, although its practice appeared to be the best attended.

Other Warrior teams — cross-country, volleyball, soccer, tennis and golf — were also out working on their respective sports Friday.

Because of Illinois High School Association guidelines regarding strike policies and the effects on athletics, the various Warrior teams are not permitted to practice on school grounds or use the equipment of the school district which is being struck. Furthermore, coaches of those striking schools cannot lead those practices.

Consequently, the teams are holding their own practices off school grounds. Those practices may not be the quality practices that they would get under supervision at GCHS, but the athletes are expressing, in their own way, their dedication to their sports.

THE MOST popular practice site earlier last week was Wilson Park. In the beginning of the week nearly every team, excluding the golf team — which was using and still may practice at Arlington Golf Course — was practicing at the park.

Since then, however, some of the teams — as the football team — have found other places to practice. The cross-country and girls' tennis team continue to practice at Wilson Park where the conditions are ideal and, as for the tennis players, one of the few other places they can practice away from the high school.

PERHAPS the team which had the most difficulty in finding a place to practice is the Warrior volleyball team. Thus far the spikers have practiced two days at Wilson Park, two days at Paddlers Swim Club's volleyball area, and most recently at the Tri-City Area YMCA.

Beginning this week, all the teams will begin to feel the effects of the strike on their season records. Starting today, two teams have begun to feel the impact of the teachers' strike — the effects which have adverse impact on their season records.

Scheduled to begin action today against Triad, the Warrior volleyball and tennis teams will have to forfeit each pairing to the Lady Knights. Or, if Triad officials agree, the games could be rescheduled for a later date after school resumes in Granite City.

HOWEVER, that depends solely on Triad. If it chooses to, Granite City can be held to today's date, which would mean a pair of Warrior forfeitures.

There is some consolation for the Warrior girls' tennis, volleyball, soccer, golf and cross country teams, however. Regardless of their season record, even if they had to forfeit the entire season, they could still qualify for post-season play. According to the IHSA Regional policy for those sports, all teams regardless of season record qualify for post-season play.

For the Warrior football team, however, post-season play is determined differently. Put plainly, the teams with the best seasonal record advance to regional play. That type of format is the only way, IHSA officials say, that the football playoffs can proceed and conclude on schedule.

AND, that format has members of the GCHS football team at least somewhat concerned.

"We're out here today because we want to win," said Chris Luffman, one of Granite City's three captains of the football team. "We're — the football players — always the guys getting hurt by a strike. The soccer players can enter the playoffs regardless of forfeits and season records. But each day we're off puts us farther away from making the playoffs." Luffman said of the IHSA policy for football playoffs.

"If we play and lose and don't

SUMMER WORKOUT. Chris Lilley, a member of Granite City High School's football team was one of several athletes Friday who participated in an informal football workout. The Warrior gridders, along with nearly all fall athletes, are conducting daily workouts to keep in shape as they anticipate an end to the teachers' strike. All Warrior teams are scheduled to begin their seasons this week.

In Qualifying Series St. Louis to host World Cup game

ST. LOUIS — The United States Soccer Federation (USSF) announced Thursday that Busch Stadium in St. Louis has been selected as the site of the second and deciding game in the World Cup Qualifying Series between the United States National Soccer Team and the Netherlands Antilles.

The announcement of the World Cup contest was made by Werner Fricker, newly elected president of the USSF, at a news conference at Busch Stadium. Also in attendance were Alkis Panagoulas, coach of the U.S. team and Ricky Davis, a stand-out professional soccer player.

The game will be played at 12:30 p.m. at Saturday, Oct. 6, and will be televised by NBC-TV Sports on same-day taped coverage.

The format of the World Cup Qualifying Series calls for the United States to play the Netherlands Antilles in the first game of the home-and-home series on September 28 in the Netherlands Antilles.

Regardless of the outcome of that game, advancement to next round action will be determined on the basis of goal differential in the two contests. Should the goals scored be equal, a third game will be played to determine the winner.

The finals of the World Cup Tournament will be held in Mexico City in June of 1986. A total of 121 nations will begin play this fall to determine the 24 teams who will qualify for the tournament finals.

Under the direction of Panagoulas, the U.S. National Soccer Team registered a major surprise earlier this year when it tied defending World Cup champion Italy, 0-0, at Giants Stadium in New Jersey.

During play in the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, the U.S. opened with a 3-0 victory over Costa Rica — the first win in Olympic competition for the U.S. since 1924 — and then lost a 1-0 decision to Italy.

The U.S. National Soccer Team features several players from the American professional soccer ranks including Ricky Davis (St. Louis Steamers) and New York Cosmos, Jeff Durgan (Cosmos), and David Bricc (Cosmos). In addition to the U.S. natives, the squad also includes recently nationalized U.S. citizens Hugo Perez (San Diego Sockers), and Jean Willrich (Sockers).

Additional information on the World Cup Qualifying Series contest between the United States and the Netherlands Antilles is available by calling Busch Stadium at 314-241-3900.

Tom Utley of St. Louis, Mo., upset the winning streak of Bo Smith, Friday night at Tri-City Speedway in the modified feature event.

Utley, driving a Firebird, had it all put together as he challenged Smith, the hot shoe modified driver, who has been dominating modified racing on the one-half mile track. Smith could do no better than second in the main event.

Utley also won the heat race with Smith, second and Marty Smith third.

Bo Smith took the trophy dash with Utley second and Marty Smith third.

Tom Seets of Brighton, won the sportsman's feature event with Steve Meyers second. Jim Lafferty of Gillespie, won the heat race in his Camaro with Lou Pritz of O'Fallon, Ill. second.

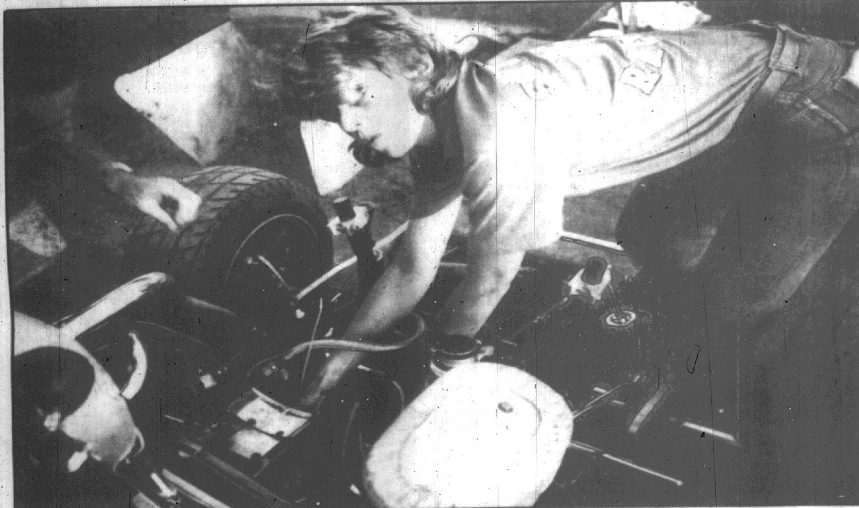

Marty Smith, doubling in the modifieds and sportsman's, took the second heat race with the trophy dash going to Pritz followed by Seets.

Rich Steyh of Cedar Hill, Mo., won the street stock feature event with Dave Hearty second. Steyh also won the heat race to make it a clean sweep with Hearty finishing second.

On Friday, Sept. 21, will be the season championship races in all three divisions. On Friday, Sept. 28 will be a United Midwest Promoters 30-lap late model stock car race with $2,000 to win.

On Oct. 6 and 7 will be the Gateway Dirt Nationals for modifieds and sportsman's cars. Five-hundred dollars to win 70-lap sportsman's race on the one-fourth mile track and $2,000 to win the 100-lap on the one-half mile track.

WOMAN'S WORK. Carol Sandy proves that auto racing wasn't designed solely for men as she works on a midget car at the Labor Day 100 held Saturday at Tri-City

Bigelow, Hood win in Labor Day '100'

By JOE SENTER
for the Press-Record

Tom Bigelow and Ricky Hood were the big winners in the Labor Day 100 U.S.A.C. Sprint Car and Midget feature events Saturday.

U.S.A.C. sprint car point leader Hood, won the 50-lap feature event, driving the Rose Brothers Trucking Blackie Fortune car. John Andretti took the lead at the drop of the green and led until lap 12 when Jack Hewitt took over as Kenny Schrader moved up to second on lap 20, caught Hood and passed him on lap 24.

But Hood went back in second on lap 25 and took over the lead for good on lap 30 to go on for the victory. There were constant battles between Hood, Schrader, Steve Butler, Andretti, Bigelow and Sheldon Kinser on the 1/2-mile dirt track.

Leon Gentry and Jerry Nemire spun in turn 3 on the 46th lap to bring out the only yellow for the 50-laps. Jack Hewitt set a new 1-lap track record of 23.241 seconds that had been held for 17 years by Ralph Ligouri. Schrader was second fast qualifier at 23.259 seconds.

The first heat race was won by Steve Butler, with Manny Rockhold taking second and Jerry Russell finishing third. The second heat went to Tom Bigelow followed by Schrader and Jerry Nemire. Hood took the third heat followed by Keith Campbell and Andretti. The semi-feature was won by Sheldon Kinser.

The top six finishers in the main event were Hood, Schrader, Bigelow, Kinser, Andretti and "Little Joe" Saldana. There were 29 sprint cars.

The 50-lap Midget Feature was taken by Tom Bigelow after passing Rick Hood, who had led from lap #4 to lap #45. Mel Kenyon took the lead at the green flag but could only hold off Hood for three laps. Hood did an outstanding job in only his second time driving the midgets, but the old "Mouse" Bigelow came in for the win.

Duke DeRosa was fast qualifier, Hood was second.

Hood passed Kenyon on the restart after Jon Backlund brought out the yellow spinning in turn #2. There was a real battle between Bigelow, John Andretti and Johnny Parsons. Bigelow, driving the Carl and Carol Sandy Stacercraft #16 V.W., showed his professional style of fast midget racing.

The first heat was taken by Russ Gamester followed by Bigelow and Kenyon. The second heat went to Allen Brown followed by Kenny Schrader and Rick Hood. The semi-feature was won by John Kenyon. Rounding out the top six in the 50-lap feature were Bigelow, Hood, Andretti, Parsons Jr., Kenyon and Brown. The local favorite Schrader went out on lap 13 with engine problems after running a very close second to Hood. There was a total of 25 midgets on hand. Bigelow leads the U.S.A.C. midget points with 391, followed by Kenyon with 314.

New GC Ducks Unlimited chapter plans fund-raising banquet Sept. 13

According to Tony J. Zedolek, chairman of the newly organized Granite City Ducks Unlimited committee, persons from Granite City and surrounding areas interested in participating in a practical conservation program will be given an opportunity to do so on Sept. 13.

As a local representative of the international waterfowl conservation organization Zedolek said, "When it comes to conservation, there are a lot of good people out there with good intentions who would really like to make a positive difference in how wildlife is perpetuated on this continent, but just don't know how to go about it."

Zedolek went on to say that he volunteered to help raise funds for Ducks Unlimited because of the organization's impressive habitat track record. Since 1937, Zedolek said that this private, nonprofit organization has constructed more than 2,100 wetland projects throughout Canada, a country where over 70 percent of North America's ducks and geese are produced and where Federal Duck Stamp dollars can't be spent. As a result, Ducks Unlimited has reserved more than 3 million habitat acres and created more than 13,000 miles of crucial nesting shoreline for the waterfowl.

Concluding his remarks about the importance of DU's conservation effort Zedolek stated, "Our committee will soon be calling on conservation-minded individuals within the community to help support our DU fund-raising banquet scheduled for Sept. 13 at the Granite City Knights of Columbus Hall. We're going to have a lot of good food, good prizes and good fund for everyone, and those who attend can rest assured the dollars we raise are going to a very good cause."

During the fund-raising banquet there will be an auction of valuable art prints by famous wildlife artists, such as John Eberhardt, Lynn R. Katz, and George C. Kieffer's "Illinois Duck Stamp."

Tickets for the banquet are available at Lane's Archery, 1837 Delmar or from Vernon Lockridge at National Auto Parts, 19th and Madison Avenue, or from Zedolek. Persons seeking further information about the banquet or Ducks Unlimited may contact Zedolek at 877-2458.

Waterfowl

Forecast: Waterfowl prediction good

Waterfowl hunters can expect more geese than last year in many parts of the country this fall, according to the 1984 "Waterfowl Fall Flight Forecast" by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the Canadian Wildlife Service.

However, the total number of ducks in the fall flight will be about 4 percent decrease in the total number of ducks is not regarded as a major change, but the figures indicate considerable reductions in the numbers of two species popular with hunters—mallards and pintails.

Geese, brant, and swans: Most goose populations experienced good habitat conditions and good production during the 1984 nesting season. The flights of most populations of Canada geese are expected to be larger than last year, with a few exceptions. The harvest of Mississippi Valley population of Canada geese was unexpectedly large last year, as a result, the breeding population in this year was smaller than last year and is below the desirable objective established by the Fish and Wildlife Service in cooperation with the involved States.

Because the breeding birds experienced good nesting success this year, the fall flight will be similar to last year but will include a larger percentage of immature birds. Poor production conditions will result in smaller flights for the Hi-Line and Rocky Mountain populations. Fall flights about the same as last year are expected for the Western Prairie and Pacific populations of Canada geese and for lesser Canada geese.

Poorer flights than last year are anticipated for Cackling Canada geese and Pacific brant. The flight of Dusky Canada geese will be larger than last year although the breeding population of these birds remains below the desired level. The fall flight of Pacific white-fronted geese will be about the same as last year.

Increased fall flights are expected for the Mid-Continent population of white-fronted geese, lesser snow geese, greater snow geese, Ross' geese, and Atlantic brant.

The fall flight of the western population of tundra swans (formerly whistling swans) will be smaller than last year. The fall flight of the eastern population will be equal to or larger than last year.

Ducks: The total number of ducks in the fall flight to the United States is expected to be about 79.8 million compared to 82.7 million last year. This year marked the fourth drought nesting areas of southern Canada.

Last year an improvement in habitat conditions resulted in a modest increase in the 1983 fall flight, but the improvement did not continue this year. The Dakota and Minnesota were the only major prairie areas with favorable conditions for ducks in 1984.

Improved conditions occurred in some northern areas with increases of ducks noted in Alaska, Northern Alberta, and the Northwest Territories. However, a significant reduction in ducks was observed in southern Saskatchewan and in southern Alberta and southern Manitoba. Compared to last year, breeding populations of mallards were down 16 percent and pintails were down 10 percent.

Breeding populations of both species are also considerably below their long-term (1955-83) average. Breeding populations of some other species, including American wigeon and gadwall. Overall, the 1984 duck breeding population in surveyed areas remained essentially unchanged from 1983 (about 1 percent lower) and was 6 percent below the long-term average.

Duck and goose numbers and the anticipated breeding success are assessed every year by waterfowl biologists from the United States and Canada, using a variety of techniques. Information about goose and brant populations is obtained from fall production surveys, counts of birds on wintering grounds and in spring staging areas, localized breeding surveys, and use of satellite imagery to assess breeding habitat conditions.

Duck populations are studied through surveys of birds harvested by hunters, analysis of recovered bird bands, and May and July breeding ground surveys conducted by observers in airplanes and on the ground. Kansas State and Provincial conservation organizations and Ducks Unlimited, Inc., cooperate with the U.S. and Canadian wildlife agencies in the studies.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service will publish final framework regulations for the 1984-85 hunting season in early September. Slides will select final hunting regulations within the frameworks offered by the Service.

Sports of all Sorts

Locked in on a memory

By AL BARNES

For the Press-Record

The 1970 Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville baseball season held many nerve-tugging thrills for me, both personally as a fan of the game and in my official capacity as the school's sports information director.

That was the year in which Coach Roy Lee directed the Cougars to a sensational 23-5 record and, in the process, put together the school's longest winning streak, 17 games.

Funny thing, however, although that 17-game winning streak and remembering it still sends chills up and down my spine, my most unforgettable recollection about that campaign happened in Bolivar, Mo., home of Missouri Baptist College near Springfield, Mo.

We breezed into Bolivar sporting a 15-game winning streak and the bus circles around the campus to the ball diamond because it had rained the night before and we were anxious to find out whether or not we could play our two scheduled games. And, of course, pick up two "easy" victories.

The next day, of course, we were slated to play the powerful Bears of Southwest Missouri State University in Springfield and that club was zooming along on its own 20-game victory skid.

As we drove up to the diamond there in Bolivar, up drives the Baptist College coach, shaking his head. It didn't take a mind reader to figure out that he didn't want to throw his charges to the SIUE wolves.

Looking over his diamond and shaking his head he said, over and over, "It's too wet and muddy to play."

To us in the Cougar bus it looked OK, but we didn't say so.

I, along with the players, walked over the school's cafeteria for a repast. After eating, the boys all scattered for a three-hour or more visitation period.

I headed for a bathroom, and, at this moment what took place a happening I shall never forget. I was locked up in the toilet and couldn't get out.

And, worst of all, school was out for the Easter vacation. It was in one of those dormitories where two rooms share the same bathroom facilities. And, to protect the one from the other, the doors entering the toilet can be locked to prevent someone from entering their rooms, etc.

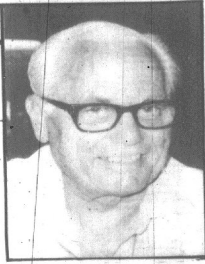

As I entered the bathroom, I activated the lock and closing my escape back into the room I had entered by. The door entering the toilet room was locked tighter than Fort Knox.

When it dawned on me what had happened, I nearly panicked. But, calming down, I tried to figure out if there was a way out. There wasn't any.

So, I started to yell, but with very little hope that I'd be heard since the room was on the second floor.

In panic, I started pounding on the doors and yelling at the top of my lungs in pure desperation. After what seemed an eternity, but probably only about five minutes I heard someone say, "Are you locked in there?"

At my affirmative answer, the young student, who is now a baptist preacher in Kentucky, opened the door and freed me.

A native of New York City, the young man hadn't gone home for Easter, thank God, and I was saved. The next day, the Cougars swept both ends of a twinbill with Southwest Missouri State Granite City's Don Rains, a standout "control" hurler, set down the Bears on one hit and beat them 1-0 on a one-hitter.

In the second game, Steve Malone, a brilliant southpaw from Marion, Ill., beat the Bears, 4-3 to complete the sweep and run the Cougars' record to 17-in-a-row.

Rains' performance was the most amazing because, as mentioned, the Bears were on a 20-game victory streak and had their ace hurler, who name escaped me now, ready to go. He was a senior and hadn't lost a game in four years at Southwest. He eventually signed a pro contract and received a $100-grand bonus for putting his signature on the deal.

Behind the plate catching Rains was another Granite City native, Roger Belshe, a freshman who had dramatically broken into the SIUE lineup down in New Orleans early that spring by blasting two home runs against Tulane University in his collegiate debut.

DePew vying for Illini punter

After seeing little action his first year on the University of Illinois football team, Darren DePew may still not see much action during the 1984 season either.

DePew, a 1982 graduate of Granite City High School North and record holder of longest field goal record in Illinois high school, was edged out of the Illini's place kicking duties last year by Chris White, Illini's head coach Mike White's son.

This year, DePew is listed in the Illini's pre-season position roster as once again White's backup, but also as a punter.

However, the most recent release from the Illini's camp clouds DePew's chances of securing that position as well.

Among the most tightly contested position battle is for the punting job, an Illini press release states. Sophomore Chad Little of Champaign and sophomore Darren DePew are the leading candidates for the job, the release continued.

"I'd say Chad is slightly ahead right now," Coach White said. "Darren is new to the game after coming to the team as a place kicker."

GC Republican Women discuss headquarter plans

Members of the Granite City Republican Women's Club discussed plans for local Republican headquarters at their 4th Saturday luncheon held last week at Burn's Cafeteria. No date, however, has been set for the opening.

Before lunch, Chaplain Ruth Lucas gave the invocation and led the group in the Pledge of Allegiance. She brought attention to the club pledge, which reads in part: "We are organized to advance women in political knowledge and activity, and to promote honest government and unselfish patriotism."

Following lunch, President Janet Wilson gave a report on the mini-convention, featuring Sen. Charles Percy, that was held at the Collinsville Hilton earlier in the month.

The Sunshine Committee reported that two members of the club, Irma Taylor and Toni Lunch, are ill and that get-well cards have been sent.

Another committee announced that the group has collected $150, thus far, for the Statue of Liberty fund. The campaign will be carried into 1985.

The club also approved a motion to supply coffee and cookies to volunteers of the Republican City Committee.

Ways and Means Chairman Gladys Newman reminded members to bring in sale items for the club's Silent Auction, set in September. Frances Jones and Anne Pare received "early bird" awards. The Rev. Lucas won the attendance prize.

Guests at the meeting included Carmen H. Toth, brought by member Emma Shoen.

The next 4th Saturday Luncheon will be conducted Sept. 22. Any member bringing three or more guests to that meeting will receive a free meal.
